Blue words

Some words in this book are blue.

We write what the blue words mean.

Help with this book

You can get someone to help you

- understand this book

- find more information.

Contact information is at the end of this book.

About this book

This book is from Arts House.

This book is about

The Warehouse Residency.

The Warehouse Residency is a program for artists who

- are Deaf

or

- have a disability.

We call it the program in this book.

What is the program?

The program supports these artists to

- make new and different art
- choose the art they want to make
- work in a safe place.

Who can apply?

You must be an artist who lives in Australia.

We support all kinds of artist, including

- Deaf artists

- people with disability

- people with illness that will not go away

- neurodivergent people.

Neurodivergent means your brain works in a different way.

For example, if you are autistic.

The Warehouse Residency is for people who already work as artists.

What should your art project be?

We choose art projects that

- are accessible
  - accessible means it is easy for everyone to go to and enjoy

- are engaging
  - engaging means you try something new or different to connect with your audience

- will give you new skills.

You should have a good plan about

- how you can make your art project happen

- what materials you will need

- how much your art project will cost.

If we choose you

If we choose you for this program, you will get

- up to 30 thousand dollars to make an art project

- up to 5 thousand dollars to help with access

- up to 2 thousand dollars for peer support
  - peer support can help you make your art

- up to 10 thousand dollars for producer and production support
  - producers and production help everyone work together

- professional development
  - professional development can help you get better as an artist

- a work space at North Melbourne Town Hall for up to 8 weeks.

If we choose you, you can decide when you want to make your art project.

In 2025

You can make your art from

Monday 25 August to Sunday 19 October.

You can show your art to people we invite from

Monday 13 October to Sunday 19 October.

In 2026

You can make your art from

Monday 16 February to Sunday 12 April.

You can show your art to people we invite from

Monday 6 April to Sunday 12 April.

Who will recommend the artists?

Our art experts will recommend up to 4 projects they like best.

Our art experts are

- 5 Deaf or Disabled artists
- the creative team from Arts House.

How can you apply?

You can send us an expression of interest.

Expression of interest or EOI means you apply.

When you send us your EOI you must

- answer questions about your project
- tell us how much you think your project will cost
- show us art you have done in the past
- tell us about your support needs.

You can send us your EOI online.

artshouse.com.au/artist-opportunities/the-warehouse-residency

You can ask someone to help you.

You can also send us your EOI

- in writing

- in a video

- in an Auslan video

- in a voice recording.

What is the final date to apply?

You must send us your EOI before 3 pm on

Wednesday 23 October 2024.

You can contact us if

- you want to apply in a different way

- you need more time because of a problem
  - for example, if you get sick.

What are the questions you must answer?

You must answer 4 questions.

1. What is your idea for this art project?

2. How will you work on your art project each week?

3. How will our support help you become a better artist?

4. How will you make your art accessible?

You can also tell us anything else we should know about your art project.

We might invite you to talk to us

If we like your project idea we might ask you to tell us more on

Thursday 5 December 2024

or

Friday 6 December 2024.

We will also talk to other artists we like before we choose the projects we will support.
